

THE ATLANTA JOURNAL

VOL. XXII

ATLANTA, GA., FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 22, 1890.—TEN PAGES.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

IT IS LAID ASIDE UNTIL NEXT SESSION.

THE FORCE BILL VIRTUALLY DEAD.

Matt Quay Comes Out of the Fight Smiling.

THE CONFERENCE LAST NIGHT.

The Senators Come to an Understanding.

WASHINGTON, August 21.—[Special.]—The Quay resolution took a very sensational turn today. It was expected this morning that the big fight would be waged to a finish and either the Quays or the anti-Quays would go down in defeat. Consequently the galleries were filled and nearly every senator was in his seat when the senate was called to order at 10 o'clock.

But the crowd was disappointed! There was no fight. Mr. Quay's resolution was not even mentioned during the morning hour, and shortly after 11 o'clock the tariff bill was taken up. But there were whisperings and conferences going on all the morning. First, Quay and Hoar got together and talked excitedly for a while. Then they calmed down, and seemed to have agreed.

QUAY CONFERS WITH GORMAN.

Then Quay went over to the democratic side, singled out Senator Gorman, and the two leaders retired. They remained closeted for half an hour, and when they returned to the chamber, arm in arm, every one knew some agreement in regard to the disposition of the force bill had been reached. Mr. Quay wore a smile and a very light suit of clothes. The smile meant victory—the toilet showed he had prepared for it.

THE AGREEMENT MADE KNOWN.

Later in the afternoon the full story came out.

The republicans of all three factions decided, after the developments of yesterday, it best to stop airing their dirty linen in public and take time to retire to privacy and change their garments. Thus they got together and the leaders reached an agreement. Mr. Quay, having things his own way, saw that it was necessary that breaches in the party should be healed, or appear to be, and he, therefore, made the proposition that, provided the republican senators would get together and agree in private that the force bill should go over until next session for action, he would agree to withdraw his resolution and make a private deal with the democrats. He would pledge the word of the republican senators that the force bill would not be called up at all this session if the democrats would allow a vote on the tariff and adjourn within four weeks.

THE HOAR FACTION WILLING.

Such an arrangement, he said, the democrats would consent to. The Hoar faction partially agreed to this, as it was their best way out of the difficulty, and in order to perfect it a conference was called to-night at the home of one of the senators. Some of the republican senators wanted to include in the agreement a date upon which a vote shall be taken upon the force bill next session, but as the democrats would never consent to a vote being taken either now, next session, or at all, Mr. Quay refused to allow it to be incorporated in the agreement.

CONFERENCE LAST NIGHT.

The conference tonight is between the leaders of the three factions of republican senators, and it is believed that if Quay's proposition is not accepted absolutely, something very near it will be agreed upon, for the Hoar men want no more open fighting in the senate chamber. Quay told Hoar he would agree to the adoption of gag rules to pass the bill next session. However, Quay knows there are men in the senate who will never consent to this, and if the bill goes over—and it seems certain it will—then it is dead beyond resurrection.

THE LIGHT, HOWEVER, STILL FULL OF INTEREST.

But all will be known in a day or two—possibly tomorrow.

WHAT WAS DONE AT THE CONFERENCE.

Every republican senator now in the city was represented at the conference held this evening at the residence of Senator McMillan, either in person or by proxy. Among those present were Messrs. Allison, Aldrich, Allen, Hawley, Platt, Hale, Frye, Blair, Hoar, Daves, Dixon, Ervins, Hiscok, Quay, Higgins, Stockbridge, Cullom, Spooner, Sawyer, Washburn, Davis, Moody, Plumb, Dolph, Mitchell, Squires, Paddock, Manderson, and Wilson of Iowa.

MORE THAN TWO HOURS WERE SPENT IN AN EXCHANGE OF VIEWS.

There being, in the language of one of the senators, "many plans proposed for a settlement of difficulties confronting the republican majority as there were senators present."

FRIENDS OF THE ELECTION BILL, OF COURSE, PRESENTED THE CLAIMS OF THAT MEASURE FOR CONSIDERATION AND ACTION AT THIS SESSION OF CONGRESS.

The proposition that was made by Mr. Teller some time ago, to take up the bill and discuss it for a time and then lay it aside until the next session, met with some favor.

MR. MOODY MADE A SPEECH ADVOCATING THE ADOPTION OF THE PREVIOUS QUESTION RULE, WHICH WAS RECEIVED WITH APPLAUSE.

After the presentation of these various views the duty of arranging an order of business to be substituted for the Quay resolution, and other pending propositions, was assigned to a committee, with Mr. Hoar as chairman, and comprising in its membership Messrs. Allison, Spooner and Hale. This committee, it is understood, will prepare a resolution, if possible, by tomorrow morning, to be offered in place of the Quay resolution. The order, it is said, is to include a vote on the tariff bill and upon certain other measures named in the Quay resolution. The election bill will go over until the next session, and will be the first measure considered when congress reassembles in December.

A FEDERAL COURT AT ATHENS.

Mr. Carlton has been vigorously pushing the bill providing for a federal court at Athens before the senate. The bill passed the house some months ago, and has been before the senate committee on judiciary since. Today the committee promised Mr. Carlton to report it favorably, and within a few weeks it is quite certain to pass the senate and reach the president's signature. Mr. Carlton will follow the passage of this bill with a public building for Athens.

DETAINED BY BUSINESS.

Judge Crisp and Mr. Butterworth will not go to the Piedmont Chautauque. Both have found it will be impossible for them to leave during the next ten days on account of the compound land bill and the Butterworth option bill.

THE FLURRY IN WALL STREET.

There was almost a panic on Wall street this afternoon owing to the stringency in the money market. Money on call brought at the rate of 180 per cent per annum. This evening Secretary Windom issued an order which he hopes will relieve the strain and avert a national calamity. The treasury department will receive $200,000,000 of 4 1/2 per cent government bonds at par with accrued interest between now and September 1st, and on that day all owners of bonds who sell will receive a year's interest in advance, which is equivalent to buying at 100 with accrued interest. It is expected that this order will put $200,000,000 in Wall street in two days.

THE AUGUSTA POSTOFFICE.

There were no new developments in the Augusta postoffice matter today. However, Colonel Clarkson is preparing his plans to have Denning's name withdrawn, and unless Wamaker returns and interferes Clarkson will be successful.

COLONEL AVERY HAS RETURNED FROM ATLANTA.

He reports Senator Brown's health better.

MR. AND MRS. J. W. HUGHES, MR. AND MRS. GREEN L. DODGE, MR. AND MRS. H. J. SMITH AND H. W. HARDWICK, OF ATLANTA, ARE AT THE METROPOLITAN.

HE LEFT THE ROOM.

When the committee refused to compel Greenby Kaun to produce his books.

WASHINGTON, August 21.—The special house committee this morning began the investigation of the charges made against Pension Commissioner Kaun by placing the commissioner upon the stand. Representative Cooper, of Indiana, who brought the charges and introduced the resolution of inquiry, appeared as counsel for the government. He called for the production of the books of the Pension Commissioner, but Commissioner Kaun refused to produce them, upon the ground that they had nothing to do with the charges of official corruption.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

THE COMMITTEE THEN PROCEEDED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER.

He said that he had borrowed $12,000 upon the endorsement of Pension Attorney Leonard and had paid it out from time to time. The amount now due was $9,000, but Leonard held collateral for twice that amount. He (Kaun), however, had never given any receipt for the money, and he had never seen the money.

WOMEN CALLED TO THE RESCUE.

FEMALE SUFFRAGE RESOLUTIONS.

In the Mississippi Constitutional Convention.

A PROPERTY QUALIFICATION.

The Judiciary Committee to Report Today.

JACKSON, Miss., August 21.—A tinge of sentiment colored the proceedings of the constitutional convention today during the progress of Delegate John W. Fewell's speech in support of a proposition offered by himself to confer suffrage upon women. Mr. Fewell's resolution reads as follows:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this convention that it is a condition necessary to the solution of the franchise problem that the right to vote shall be secured, by proper constitutional enactment, to every woman who shall have resided in this state six months, and who shall be twenty-one years of age or upwards, and who, shall own, or whose husband, if she have a husband, shall own real estate situated in this state of the clear value of $500, and who shall be a citizen of the United States.

COLLECTIONS AS TO REFERENCE.

Under the rules the resolution should have gone to the committee on elective franchise, but by unanimous consent, he was allowed to take the floor in support of his resolution.

MR. FEWELL MADE MOST OF HIS OPPORTUNITY.

and in a speech of twenty minutes' duration, made a deep impression on all his hearers. He urged that a special committee be appointed to report on the question, but the committee on elective franchise refused to accept the resolution, and after two hours' discussion Mr. Fewell struck out the objectionable clauses of his reference resolution and had it referred to the usual way.

AN AMENDMENT TO THE RESOLUTION.

Delegate Hudson of Yazoo, also offered an amendment providing for female suffrage with property and educational qualifications. This also embraces the Australian ballot system.

THE WOMAN SUFFRAGE IDEA IS GROWING IN FAVOR.

among the best minds of the convention, and unless safety from negro supremacy can be secured, the idea of woman suffrage is not so similar to it, will be adopted.

THE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

At 10 o'clock tomorrow morning the judiciary committee will make its report upon the question submitted by the convention a few days ago as to whether the fundamental rights of the citizen should be secured by a bill of rights, or by a bill of rights and a bill of 1870, readmitting Mississippi into the union, or constitutional and binding upon this convention. It is understood that the committee will report against the constitutionality of the fundamental conditions, and advise the convention that they are not bound by them. The convention will probably adjourn tomorrow until Monday, there being no business ready for consideration.

GEORGE WISE WRITES A LETTER.

He explains Why He Sought Nomination, and Says He Will Not Again.

ROBERTSON, AUGUST 21.—[Special.]—

Hon. George D. Wise, who was elected to the sixth successive term as the democratic candidate for congress from this district, has prepared an address to his constituents, which will appear in the Richmond papers tomorrow morning.

HE URGES HARMONY AND UNION, AND A BRIEF REVIEW OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES UNDER WHICH HE HAS RECEIVED THE NOMINATION FOR THE LAST THREE TIMES.

In 1886 he declared that he would not be a candidate, but being greatly importuned he finally decided to run, and two years later he had decided not to offer for the suffrage of the district, but he was elected by a large majority, and he accepted. He declares that he was honestly elected, and that the republicans were being in a measure minority sought to increase it by dishonest methods for partisan purposes, and recklessly violating well settled rules of law and equity.

HE URGES HARMONY AND UNION, AND A BRIEF REVIEW OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES UNDER WHICH HE HAS RECEIVED THE NOMINATION FOR THE LAST THREE TIMES.

In 1886 he declared that he would not be a candidate, but being greatly importuned he finally decided to run, and two years later he had decided not to offer for the suffrage of the district, but he was elected by a large majority, and he accepted. He declares that he was honestly elected, and that the republicans were being in a measure minority sought to increase it by dishonest methods for partisan purposes, and recklessly violating well settled rules of law and equity.

HE URGES HARMONY AND UNION, AND A BRIEF REVIEW OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES UNDER WHICH HE HAS RECEIVED THE NOMINATION FOR THE LAST THREE TIMES.

In 1886 he declared that he would not be a candidate, but being greatly importuned he finally decided to run, and two years later he had decided not to offer for the suffrage of the district, but he was elected by a large majority, and he accepted. He declares that he was honestly elected, and that the republicans were being in a measure minority sought to increase it by dishonest methods for partisan purposes, and recklessly violating well settled rules of law and equity.

HE URGES HARMONY AND UNION, AND A BRIEF REVIEW OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES UNDER WHICH HE HAS RECEIVED THE NOMINATION FOR THE LAST THREE TIMES.

In 1886 he declared that he would not be a candidate, but being greatly importuned he finally decided to run, and two years later he had decided not to offer for the suffrage of the district, but he was elected by a large majority, and he accepted. He declares that he was honestly elected, and that the republicans were being in a measure minority sought to increase it by dishonest methods for partisan purposes, and recklessly violating well settled rules of law and equity.

HE URGES HARMONY AND UNION, AND A BRIEF REVIEW OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES UNDER WHICH HE HAS RECEIVED THE NOMINATION FOR THE LAST THREE TIMES.

In 1886 he declared that he would not be a candidate, but being greatly importuned he finally decided to run, and two years later he had decided not to offer for the suffrage of the district, but he was elected by a large majority, and he accepted. He declares that he was honestly elected, and that the republicans were being in a measure minority sought to increase it by dishonest methods for partisan purposes, and recklessly violating well settled rules of law and equity.

HE URGES HARMONY AND UNION, AND A BRIEF REVIEW OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES UNDER WHICH HE HAS RECEIVED THE NOMINATION FOR THE LAST THREE TIMES.

In 1886 he declared that he would not be a candidate, but being greatly importuned he finally decided to run, and two years later he had decided not to offer for the suffrage of the district, but he was elected by a large majority, and ad the pride and manliness to enter their mpathic protest against the scheme. Their

TWO SENSATIONS
IN THE ALLIANCE.

GOV. GORDON'S ANTI-SUBTREASURY

Speech Was Widely Discussed on All Sides.

MR. CORPUT AND THE EXCHANGE.

The Report of the Committee--
Other Matters of Interest.

The last day of the state alliance convention was productive of two interesting sensations, and all day long these two were topics for talk among the allianceans.

The first of these was the unanimous endorsement by the convention of the St. Louis platform, carrying with it, of course, the unanimous endorsement of the subtreasury plan of the alliance.

The second was the report of the committee having under consideration the investigation of ex-president of the exchange Corput.

The Subtreasury Endorsement.

Governor Gordon's speech of the night before was much talked about among the members of the convention before they assembled, and the discussion didn't cease with the calling of the body to order. The governor's declaration that he was unqualifiedly opposed to the subtreasury plan was not expected and proved the greater sensation on that account. The bearing upon the senatorial contest was, of course, the point most discussed, and while a variety of opinions were advanced, one thing was certain: That the alliance-men pinned their faith upon the subtreasury, and that, in the opinion of the majority, the governor's speech was a challenge to a test of strength between himself and the alliance leaders.

During the morning the statement was made by an alliance leader that the state alliance would demand of every alliancean in the legislature that he vote for no candidate for the senate who did not stand squarely on the alliance platform, subtreasury and all.

The reports furnished by the secretary and the press committee contain no mention of any formal action upon the matter of senatorship. But they do show that the Georgia State Alliance, by a unanimous vote, endorses the national platform adopted at St. Louis.

This means that the Georgia State Alliance by a unanimous vote reiterates the endorsement of the subtreasury plan; and this endorsement, coming as it does right on the heels of Governor Gordon's declaration against that plan, is regarded as decidedly significant to say the least.

Governor Gordon and his friends say that his speech has not hurt him in the least, but on the contrary has benefited him. They say that he will receive the alliance vote, or a good part of it, as the alliance know that he is in full sympathy with them and is their friend. The governor, it is said, has already told them that if necessary he will take the stump in support of the democratic nominees in the seventh and ninth congressional districts, both of whom are alliance-men, and will do all in his power to secure their nomination. His services, he says, are at their disposal.

So far as his own race is concerned, he believes that the alliance vote cannot be delivered against him, and his friends bear him out in that belief.

The Corput Investigation.

As was expected, the committee having in hand the investigation of the actions of Mr. Felix Corput, made a report vindicting Mr. Corput so far as the Pedigo affidavit was concerned. The committee reported that the percentage demanded by Mr. Corput was for the benefit of the exchange and not for Mr. Corput personally.

Mr. Corput was congratulated by his friends at this result, but the report created a great deal of talk.

This was particularly about the attitude in which the exchange was put by that report.

Speaking of the result of the investigation, Mr. John Sibley, president of one of the Cobb county suballiances and one of the most enthusiastic alliance-men in the state, who produced the Pedigo affidavit and had it read to the convention, said:

"I am perfectly satisfied with the result of the investigation. My object in bringing up the matter was not a personal one at all. I had no ill-will and no ill-feeling against Mr. Corput; but, like many other alliance-men who knew of the existence of that affidavit, I did want to know where to place the responsibility for what I considered an imposition upon the members of the alliance. I was under the impression that the exchange was established with a view to giving the farmers the benefit of cheaper goods. But, from all that I have been able to learn, the opposite has been the result. Mr. Pedigo's affidavit shows this, and so does that other one of the Baltimore guarantee, which, like that of Mr. Pedigo, was held over Mr. Corput's head when he was forced to resign the presidency of the exchange—or rather, when he did resign that position. In substance, both of these affidavits said that, as president of the exchange and its responsible head, Mr. Corput stated that the exchange would protect dealers in who ever price they might put upon their commodities, so long as the exchange percentage was paid. As I said, the investigation has brought out just what I wanted to know, and I am fully satisfied."

The result of this investigation was freely discussed about the streets and in business circles yesterday. One result of this discussion was the statement by most of the leading guano men of the city, that while president of the exchange, Mr. Corput, in inviting bids from the different firms in the city, asked each firm to pay 50 cents per ton in advance on their bona fide price. The fertilizer merchants did it with the understanding that this would only apply to guano sold through the exchange, that sold directly from the houses being 50 cents per ton cheaper. The merchants say that every ton of guano that was sold from the Alliance Exchange under Mr. Corput's management cost the farmers 50 cents per ton more than if they had gotten it somewhere else.

There were other important matters considered at yesterday's meeting of the alliance and much important business was transacted. The proceedings of that session—or as much of them as are given to the public—are presented below.

THE PROCEEDINGS IN DETAIL.

Important Business Transacted by the State Alliance.

The State Farmers' Alliance convention adjourned yesterday just after noon. The chapter closed with prayer by Rev. Mr. Davis, of Habersham, chaplain of the alliance.

Perhaps the most important action taken by the convention was the adoption of the St. Louis platform, endorsing:

1. The subtreasury.
2. Government ownership of transportation lines.

And most significant, so far as state politics are concerned—the subtreasury.

This was the last important piece of work, passed just before the convention adjourned. The delegates are nearly all gone now, and the hotels look deserted.

AN ATTACK ON MR. CALVIN.

Another matter in which considerable interest was felt by the convention was an attack through Hon. Felix Corput, on Hon. Martin V. Calvin, of Richmond.

The attack comes from Mr. James Barrett, of Richmond, who has his eye on the same place that Mr. Calvin expects to have in the next legislature.

Mr. Barrett's charge was that Mr. Calvin, though a prominent member of the order, was not eligible to membership in the alliance. This was first printed by Mr. Barrett in the The Augusta Evening News.

Then Mr. Barrett, enclosed this, in a letter, to Mr. Corput.

Mr. Corput is chairman of the executive committee, and both he and Mr. Calvin are candidates for the speakership of the next house.

Mr. Corput, without informing Mr. Calvin of the matter, laid it before the committee of which he (Mr. Corput) was chairman.

That committee, however, decided that it was not the proper body to adjudicate the matter, and referred it to the judiciary committee.

Mr. Calvin is a member of this committee, but refused to act upon a matter in which he was directly interested, and Dr. J. M. McDonald acted in his place.

The result is told in this official communication from the state secretary:

HALL OF HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, ATLANTA, GA., August 20.—The following letter from Brother James Barrett, of Augusta, enclosing a newspaper clipping headed, "County Politics," being a reply to Mr. Calvin by Mr. Barrett, was submitted to the alliance state convention this day by Brother Felix Corput. The letter was read and referred to the judiciary committee. Brother Calvin being a member of said committee, the president appointed Brother Martin V. Calvin to read the letter.

AUGUSTA, GA., August 18.—Mr. Felix Corput, Alliance Exchange, Atlanta, Ga. Dear Brother: I enclose you my article on Calvin, and call your special attention to the illegal membership of Mr. Calvin in the alliance. Please call the attention of the convention to an article in the constitution and by-laws governing the county alliance, and the judiciary committee, submitted the following report:

The judiciary committee, to whom has been referred the complaint of Brother James Barrett, of Richmond county, in regard to the eligibility of Brother M. V. Calvin in the Farmers' Alliance, decided:

1. That the only way that Brother Calvin can forfeit his membership in the Farmers' Alliance must be through charges brought against him primarily in his own suballiance.
2. That his suballiance, when they admitted Brother Calvin to membership, did not exceed the discretion invested in them by section 2 of the constitution.

It is the opinion of the committee not only that Brother Calvin is clearly eligible to membership in the Farmers' Alliance, but that he is a man of great worth and that the grand purposes of our order would be greatly advanced if we had in our ranks more such cool, clear-headed, honest, capable, intelligent, energetic members as Martin V. Calvin. Respectfully submitted, A. Q. MOODY.

THE REPORT WAS RECEIVED AND UNANIMOUSLY adopted. Thereupon Brother Calvin asked permission to say a word to the convention. He returned thanks for the kindly and enthusiastic spirit in which the brethren had adopted the committee's report, and explained that he had been outside his farm, and reiterated his devotion to the principles of the order.

I certify that the foregoing is correct. R. L. BURNS, Secretary Georgia State Alliance.

THE CORPUT RESOLUTIONS.

The committee, to whom was referred the investigation of the charges against Mr. Corput, submitted the following report:

We, the committee, to whom was submitted the following charge against Brother Felix Corput, viz: "Charges" after carefully investigating said matter by examining all witnesses whom we could get, pro and con, unanimously agree that we find not a word of evidence against Brother Corput of any malfeasance while president of the exchange. We find that all the evidence submitted that the demand for the percentage was for the exchange and not for Corput personally. We agree in finding that the charges growing out of the affidavit of J. W. Pedigo & Lyon are without foundation to sustain the allegation. We believe from the evidence that Brother Corput is as clear as his character as any man in our alliance, so far as this charge is concerned.

J. W. BUCK, Chairman, L. J. NEWTON, J. Y. BARRETT, E. W. EVERETT, WILLIAM T. FLYNN.

After the report was read, Mr. Corput arose and thanked the committee, and stated that he was glad the matter had been investigated. He assured the convention that the matter was not without political significance, stating that he was satisfied by the report of J. W. Pedigo & Lyon, of Rome; and further expressing the opinion that the constitution had been somewhat active in the matter on account of the speakership race.

The report was then adopted.

Hon. W. A. Broughton, of Morgan, treasurer of the state alliance, then offered the following resolution:

Whereas, There has been very serious and false charges against Brother Felix Corput published and circulated in certain papers in this state; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the members of the state alliance, in convention assembled, do hereby fully exonerate him from any and all said false and venomous charges, and give him our hearty support and endorsement as a man of the highest character, and worthy of any trust that the people of Georgia may confide in him.

This was adopted.

AN INSURANCE DEPARTMENT. The convention adopted the report of the special committee on insurance, which recommended that the convention elect a board of directors, consisting of five members, to formulate and put into execution a plan of insurance for the alliance of the state of Georgia.

The following directors were elected: R. F. WRIGHT, FELIX CORPUT, W. A. WILSON, W. B. MEERS, W. H. BELL.

AFTER EDITOR BROWN. Mr. Corput had his say about Editor Brown yesterday, and for a time things looked squally.

A committee had been appointed to consider the advisability of having the state organ owned directly by the state alliance.

They reported in favor of leaving the paper under its present management; which amounted to a straight endorsement of Editor Harry Brown and his co-laborers.

Mr. Corput moved to disavow the report. He thought a change of management was desirable. He charged that the paper was not run in the interest of the alliance, and said quite a number of things in the same brotherly tenor.

Colonel Livingston, anticipating a sharp reply from Editor Brown, secured the floor himself.

He warmly defended Mr. Brown, and praised his skillful and wholly unselfish management of the paper.

Mr. Brown made several attempts to reply, but the motion to adopt the committee's report was put and carried, and Editor Brown was thoroughly vindicated and there was no need to say anything.

A resolution was offered, and adopted with enthusiasm, in which cotton bagging was adopted as the alliance covering.

"Down with jute," was the sentiment of the convention.

"Down with the trust!" The enthusiasm and unanimity were notable, showing that the alliance is as determined as ever in this fight.

INVITED TO THE EXPOSITION. An invitation was extended the alliance, through Vice President Surgis, sent by the directors of the exposition, to attend the exposition this fall.

Colonel Livingston made a short speech, urging the acceptance of the invitation. It was accepted.

A MESSAGE TO KANSAS. The following resolutions were passed, a copy of them to be presented to the Kansas alliance by the Georgia delegation appointed to bear fraternal greeting:

Whereas, The alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with their brothers of the north and west, and believing that the alliance now in power encourage sectional strife and partisan politics, and that the alliance of Kansas, in holding upon the public mind and upon the offices of power and trust; therefore, be it resolved:

1. That the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

2. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

3. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

4. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

5. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

6. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

7. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

8. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

9. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

10. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

11. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

12. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

13. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

14. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

15. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

16. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

17. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

18. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

19. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

20. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

21. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

22. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

23. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

24. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

25. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

26. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

27. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

28. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

29. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

30. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

31. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

32. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

33. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

34. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

35. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

36. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

37. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

38. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

39. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

40. That, through the enabling influences of our brotherhood, must come the restoration of unity and peace to the nation, and that the alliance of Georgia, in convention assembled, feel the necessity of close fraternal relations with the alliance of Kansas, and to bear these greetings, brethren from their fraternal affection, and in the name of their well as by their brotherly conduct, the desires of their hearts in this regard.

THE ALLIANCE
AGGRESSIVE.

THE ALLIANCE TO BUILD A RAILROAD

Conference of Alliance Leaders with Mr. Machen.

A NAPOLEONIC UNDERTAKING

That Will Revolutionize Transportation.

Is the Alliance going into the railroad business?

It has cotton warehouses, cotton-seed oil mills, fertilizer factories and mercantile operations on a large scale, and something which transpired in Atlanta yesterday makes it look as though the alliance people have their minds on transportation as well.

Mr. E. C. Machen, the Napoleon of railroad building of middle Georgia, who now has in charge the construction of a line between Atlanta and the sea, came to the city yesterday afternoon on the invitation of some leading alliance men who had something interesting to say.

The conference was between three of the leading alliance men of the state and Mr. Machen, and it appears that the alliance men meant business, for they very soon put their ideas in the definite shape of a proposition to Mr. Machen.

Mr. Machen's line is projected from Atlanta by way of Covington, Machen, Eatonton and Sandersville to Savannah, running by almost an air line through the bends of the great S made by the line of the Central railroad, thereby saving between here and Savannah sixty-two miles, according to the claim of the surveyors.

This road, Mr. Machen has undertaken to build for $12,000,000, or $2,800,000 for the 232 miles.

The alliance leaders proposed that the alliance men take half the bonds and raise $1,400,000 by an average subscription of less than one thousand dollars among the members of each suballiance in the state.

This was to be done provided Mr. Machen put a majority of the stock in trust with the state treasurer, or some depository agreed upon, to remain there until two years after the completion of the road.

Another condition on which the alliance leaders based their proposition is that the rate of passenger fare shall be 13 cents a mile, with freight rates in the same proportion.

Mr. Machen replied that he would take the proposition under consideration, and he believed firmly that the road would make a saving in proportion, than it could on the existing freight and passenger traffic. In this way he thought the transportation problem could be solved without the aid of legislation.

This, following on the heels of the resolution adopted direct trade, seems to indicate that the alliance men have in view nothing less than a complete system of transportation by rail and by sea, between the capital of Georgia and the principal ports of England and the continent of Europe.

When it is remembered that the co-operative societies of England, composed almost entirely of working men, do a total business of several hundred millions and control a number of steamships, this new ambitious venture of the Georgia alliance becomes a matter of national and even international interest.

Take just one supposition, for instance. Suppose the Georgia alliance men and the co-operative manufacturers of Great Britain and France should become associated in a general traffic and international commerce agreement. The possibilities of such a thing are inconceivable.

Prominent Railroaders in Macon. MAcon, Ga., August 21.—[Special.]—Several prominent officials of the East Tennessee railroad are in Macon today. They are General Freight Agent T. S. Davant, of Knoxville; S. C. Boynton, commercial agent at Jacksonville; John J. Griffin, assistant general freight agent, with headquarters at Atlanta.

They were hospitably entertained while here.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—U. S. Gov't Report, Aug. 17, 1889.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

At Wholesale by H. A. Boynton and Shropshire & Dodd, Atlanta, Ga.

SUMMER SUITS AT REDUCED PRICES.

GOV. GORDON GOING

TO ATTEND THE REUNION OF THE BLUE AND GRAY

In Knoxville—Mr. F. A. Masses, of Tennessee, Appointed on the Governor's Staff Yesterday.

Governor Gordon is to be one of the most popular and prominent figures at the reunion of the blue and gray in Knoxville, Tenn., October 7th, 8th and 9th.

A special committee of prominent citizens of Knoxville came to Atlanta to tender the invitation.

The governor has promised to go, if he can possibly do so. His military staff will probably accompany him.

Governor Gordon has recently appointed Mr. F. A. Masses, of Knoxville, as a member of his staff from East Tennessee.

The Knoxville Chamber of Commerce, acting in connection with the Blue and Gray Reunion, has decided to send a delegation of prominent citizens to the reunion.

The delegation will consist of Mr. F. A. Masses, of Knoxville, and Mr. H. S. Mizner, president of the Knoxville Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Masses is a member of the governor's staff, and Mr. Mizner is a prominent citizen of Knoxville.

These gentlemen are also called on all state officers and other prominent Atlanta people, and extended pressing invitations to them to attend the reunion.

Mr. Masses extended an invitation to all the military companies of the city to attend and take part in the sham battle and competitive drill. The invitation will be acted upon.

The military band will be secured if possible. Mr. Shepard goes from here to call on General Longstreet, to insist upon his attendance at the reunion.

Mr. Shepard also called on Mr. Jones, who is in charge of the reunion, and will be in charge of the reunion.

Mr. Shepard also called on Mr. Jones, who is in charge of the reunion, and will be in charge of the reunion.

Mr. Shepard also called on Mr. Jones, who is in charge of the reunion, and will be in charge of the reunion.

Mr. Shepard also called on Mr. Jones, who is in charge of the reunion, and will be in charge of the reunion.

Mr. Shepard also called on Mr. Jones, who is in charge of the reunion, and will be in charge of the reunion.

Mr. Shepard also called on Mr. Jones, who is in charge of the reunion, and will be in charge of the reunion.

Mr. Shepard also called on Mr. Jones, who is in charge of the reunion, and will be in charge of the reunion.

Mr. Shepard also called on Mr. Jones, who is in charge of the reunion, and will be in charge of the reunion.

Mr. Shepard also called on Mr. Jones, who is in charge of the reunion, and will be in charge of the reunion.

Mr. Shepard also called on Mr. Jones, who is in charge of the reunion, and will be in charge of the reunion.

Mr. Shepard also called on Mr. Jones, who is in charge of the reunion, and will be in charge of the reunion.

Mr. Shepard also called on Mr. Jones, who is in charge of the reunion, and will be in charge of the reunion.

Mr. Shepard also called on Mr. Jones, who is in charge of the reunion, and will be in charge of the reunion.

Mr. Shepard also called on Mr. Jones, who is in charge of the reunion, and will be in charge of the reunion.

Mr. Shepard also called on Mr. Jones, who is in charge of the reunion, and will be in charge of the reunion.

Mr. Shepard also called on Mr. Jones, who is in charge of the reunion, and will be in charge of the reunion.

Mr. Shepard also called on Mr. Jones, who is in charge of the reunion, and will be in charge of the reunion.

Mr. Shepard also called on Mr. Jones, who is in charge of the reunion, and will be in charge of the reunion.

Mr. Shepard also called on Mr. Jones, who is in charge of the reunion, and will be in charge of the reunion.

Mr. Shepard also called on Mr. Jones, who is in charge of the reunion, and will be in charge of the reunion.

Mr. Shepard also called on Mr. Jones, who is in charge of the reunion, and will be in charge of the reunion.

Mr. Shepard also called on Mr. Jones, who is in charge of the reunion, and will be in charge of the reunion.

THE POLICE TELEGRAPH

THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN RECOMMENDS THE SYSTEM.

And Authorize the Expenditure of $300 for a Tower to be Erected on the Old Capitol Building.

The board of aldermen convened in regular session yesterday.

And authorized the construction of the police telegraph system.

Mr. Howell was in the chair and Mr. Haas, Mr. Middlebrooks, Mr. Woodward and Mr. Reinhardt were present.

Captain English, chairman of the board of police commissioners was on hand to watch the fate of Mr. King's council resolution authorizing the construction of the police telegraph system.

The resolution was produced and read by the clerk.

Captain English spoke at length, showing the necessity of the improvement asked for. His speech was short but full of force.

Mr. Haas favored the introduction of the system, but did not like the reading of the resolution.

Mr. Middlebrooks favored the improvement and felt assured that Captain English and his associates of the police board would do the best that could be done for Atlanta.

Mr. Reinhardt opposed the resolution because it bound the city council, when that body had no authority to make the contemplated contract.

"I have a resolution here," said Mr. Haas "which I will present as a substitute."

The resolution by Mr. Haas read: Resolved, by the mayor and general council, that the board of police commissioners be recommended to contract for a system of police telegraph at a cost not exceeding $12,000. Provided that the contractors agree to look to the next council for payment; nothing in this recommendation shall be construed as in any event to bind the council of 1890 to pay for the same.

"That'll suit us," said Captain English, "as the resolution was read."

It was then adopted.

The appropriations expended were shown by City Comptroller Goldsmith to be $937,132.83, while the warrants drawn were $238,064.79.

The board agreed to appropriate $500 for the tower for the clock on the old capitol.

The board then concurred in appropriating $100 to continue Arthur street to West Hunter.

In expending $701.67 for a main along Pine street from West Peachtree to Spring, thence along Spring to Hummell avenue and thence west to West Peachtree.

In building sidewalks on Venable street between Alexander and Pine at a cost of $25.00.

In building sidewalks on Plum at a cost of $330.

In paying off $500 for rock curbing, brick sidewalks and gutters of Jones avenue from Martin street to Grant park.

In refunding ice license to Echols & Richards.

In expending $25 for sidewalks on Rice from Jackson to the Boulevard.

In paying to W. J. Montgomery $425, amount derived from the sale of a cow at police headquarters.

In refunding to J. M. Brooks $10 amount of fine.

A report of the city comptroller showed:

Ordinary.....$132,200 00
Paid up.....109,223 96
Overdrawn.....26,022 96

Carriage and Owing and Widening Streets.....$185,000 00
Paid up.....33,333 00
Available.....151,667 00

Overdraft in blocks is expected from the street railroads on account of granite blocks.

The ordinance authorizing the employment of a competent bookkeeper in the assessor's office, at a salary of $1,000, was taken up.

At the last session of the board the ordinance was concurred in, but Mr. Woodward, who opposed it, changed his vote and gave notice of an intention to move a reconsideration.

On his motion to reconsider, the board again concurred in the ordinance.

AN EVENTFUL RAID.

FOUR REVENUE OFFICERS NARROWLY ESCAPE DEATH.

Fifteen Armed Moonshiners Hidden by the Wayside—Three Shots Fired at the Officers—Eight Arrests.

Fifteen moonshiners in ambush. Three shots fired at some revenue officers in broad daylight.

A wild scene in the house of a moonshiner, where pistols are freely drawn.

Such is the text of a thrilling story told by one of the deputies that have just returned from an eventful and daring raid in the mountains of Towns and Union counties.

The revenue officers who went upon the bold errand of capturing five or six illicit distilleries in the heart of the Blue Ridge of Georgia, which they had located by three, were Deputy Collectors Spence and Hatterington, and Deputy Marshals Runnels and Hughes.

The distilleries have been engaging the attention of the officers for some time, but not until recently were they located accurately enough to warrant a raiding tour in the mountain regions in which they were thought to be operated.

The trip was a great undertaking, and the officers knew it, and were prepared to make a two weeks' stay of it in the mountains.

They left Atlanta on the 13th instant, and returned only yesterday to make a report of their successful raid.

The story of the raid as told by one of the deputy marshals, relates that the officers first went to the wildest mountain regions of Towns county.

Here they had located a very large illicit distillery, and judging from the enormous quantities of whisky and beer that had been traced as coming from this place, they easily guessed that the still was operated by a number of men.

For this reason they decided to capture it in the daytime, not caring to venture in the unfamiliar mountain thickets in the shadow of night.

After a journey of several miles they found the distillery hidden in the remotest valleys of the Blue Ridge mountains about ten miles from Hixson.

A SCHOOL BOY'S TRICK. Drawing near the place they saw from a glance that none of the operators were there, so they proceeded as usual to destroy the whisky and beer found there, which were more than two thousand gallons.

After this was done the revenue officers heard voices in the woods near by, and looking up saw a school boy, whom they had seen leave a neighboring schoolhouse as they passed, walking back towards the school.

They knew at once that they had been given dead away in their raid, and judged that this young fellow had come before them to warn the moonshiners of their approach.

By the evidence about the distillery that the operators had not been more than a few minutes gone. After breaking up the distillery, the officers started away to lay further plans for the arrest of the moonshiners.

THREE SHOTS FIRED. They had not proceeded farther than about half a mile on their way before the sudden crack of a rifle told them they were pursued by the men.

The shot was followed by two others in rapid succession, and the school boy, who had been sent to warn the distillers of their coming by the teacher of the school.

ARRESTING A PRISONER. The next raid the officers made was in Union county.

They were after a still, said to be the property of Bill Davis, tell them where the still was, and the officers asked his wife to direct them to it. She also refused, but said in a tart manner that it was where they would never find it.

Encouraged by his wife's reply, Davis pulled a pistol from his pocket and drew it Deputy Collector Hatterington, who he was caught before he had time to fire it.

He was placed under arrest, and his wife, after much entreaties, guided the officers to the still hidden in a pasture on the farm of Rev. Mr. Dyer, a Baptist minister, and after such investigation as convinced the officers that he had been the owner of the still, Dyer knew something about it, they were all three arrested.

At a preliminary hearing before Commissioner of the Superior Court, Judge Dyer and his wife were bound over until the case comes up before the United States court.

The next raid was in Union county, near Blythe, where a distillery was captured belonging to James Fields. He was arrested.

The officers then went back to Towns county, where they secured and destroyed a still, and arrested Jack Ferguson and Isaac Ramie.

FIFTEEN ARMED MEN. The officers narrowly escaped an attack of fifteen armed moonshiners on their way out of the mountains of Towns county.

It seems that the men who operated the first distillery they captured, and who were saved from the gallows by the school boy, were bound over until the case comes up before the United States court.

The officers then went back to Towns county, where they secured and destroyed a still, and arrested Jack Ferguson and Isaac Ramie.

At a preliminary hearing before Commissioner of the Superior Court, Judge Dyer and his wife were bound over until the case comes up before the United States court.

The next raid was in Union county, near Blythe, where a distillery was captured belonging to James Fields. He was arrested.

The officers then went back to Towns county, where they secured and destroyed a still, and arrested Jack Ferguson and Isaac Ramie.

At a preliminary hearing before Commissioner of the Superior Court, Judge Dyer and his wife were bound over until the case comes up before the United States court.

Wonders

Are wrought by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor in restoring gray hair to its original color, promoting a new growth, preventing the hair from falling, keeping it soft, silky, and abundant, and the scalp cool, healthy, and free from dandruff or humors.

The universal testimony is that this preparation has no equal as a dressing, and is, therefore, indispensable to every well-furnished toilet.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for some time and it has worked wonders for me. I was troubled with dandruff and was rapidly becoming bald; but since using the Vigor my hair has ceased coming out, and I now have a good growth of the same color as when I was a young woman. It can hardly be recommended any one suffering from dandruff or loss of hair to use Ayer's Hair Vigor as a dressing."—Mrs. Lydia A. Moody, East Fittston, Me.

"Some time ago my wife's hair began to come out quite freely.

"I used Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think it was necessary for restoring it as a physician ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few

THE SOLDIERS' HOME.

AN IMPORTANT MEETING OF THE TRUSTEES YESTERDAY.

A Resolution to Turn the Property Over to the City of Atlanta Referred to the General Committee.

The Soldiers' Home will be completed by September 15th.

So say the architects, Messrs. Bruce & Morgan, and the contractor, Mr. Boylston.

And it is a building that will do credit to the city, the county, the state at large, and the noble-hearted people who have contributed to the glorious project.

There was a very important meeting of the board of trustees yesterday at the capital.

There were present Judge W. L. Calhoun, president; Hon. W. H. Harrison, secretary;

Mr. Paul Romare, treasurer; Colonel Richard Hobbs and Hon. Nelson Tift, of Albany; Captain W. D. Ellis, Dr. Amos Fox, Major A. M. Foote, of Bartow; General Phil Cook, Mr. Bruce, of Bruce & Morgan, and Mr. Boylston.

As president and chairman of the building committee, Judge Calhoun tendered a very comprehensive report of the progress of the work.

Mr. Paul Romare, as treasurer, tendered his report, showing a very satisfactory state of affairs financially. Mr. Harrison, as secretary, handed in his report, which was full and complete, giving the details of the work.

A bill for extra work was referred to the board of trustees yesterday at the capital.

The general committee of five, of which Captain W. D. Ellis is chairman, appointed at the last meeting to consider the future of the home with regard to its support and maintenance, asked for further time, which was granted.

Colonel Hobbs introduced a resolution to the effect that a committee be appointed to confer with the city authorities of Atlanta, with a view to turning over the home to the city on condition that it be made a home for invalid soldiers, and it was referred to the general committee.

This seems to be the most popular idea with the board, to turn it over either to the city or the state as soon as it is completed.

After the routine work was over, the board paid a visit to the home. All the members were highly pleased with the appearance of the building, which is a magnificent structure.

It will be completed about the 15th of September, and will then be ready for occupancy.

The most serious problem that now confronts the board is its final disposition. They consider that it is essential that it should be taken in charge by the authorities of the city or state, so that its perpetuity and proper management will be assured beyond question.

The general committee is hard at work trying to solve that question now.

THE YOUNG MEN'S LEAGUE.

An Appeal for the Young Men to Enroll Their Names.

The Young Men's Democratic League is the talk of the town.

Every young democrat in Atlanta manifests great interest in the affairs of the league, and it is certain that an enormous roll of membership will be had within the next few days.

The roll book has been opened by the secretary, and with the assistance of the executive committee a great list of names is being added every day to the roll.

It is of vital importance to the league that the young men desiring to become members of the league subscribe their names to the constitution at once.

President Harvey Johnson has issued the following announcement:

To the Young Men of Atlanta: All young men who wish to join the Young Men's Democratic League of Fulton county, can do so at the offices of Clarence E. Moore, John W. Cox, Hamilton Douglass, Walter R. B. Smith, and Thomas F. Ryan.

The new executive committee will be announced in a few days. HARVEY JOHNSON, President.

THE HORSE GUARDS.

A Splendid Drill and Tilt Yesterday Afternoon.

Yesterday was the day for the quarterly drill of the Governor's Horse Guards.

In the afternoon the company turned out thirty-five to forty strong and repaired to the beautiful parade grounds on Capitol avenue.

The drill was one of the most admirable ever conducted by the company.

There were a large number of carriages filled with visitors on the ground, and the splendid maneuvering of Georgia's crack cavalry company was witnessed with enthusiastic interest.

After the drill was over the tournament squad engaged in a tilt, and displayed wonderful skill and proficiency in the art of cutting off heads and bearing off rings in this cavalry practice.

The Guards are doing their level best to bring themselves up to such a training as will carry them through the coming tournament at Piedmont Exposition with flying colors.

THE COUNTY DIGESTS.

Fulton County Official Return Made Yesterday.

Fulton's official return was made yesterday to the controller general's office, the return being one thing more than has already been said about the return is worthy of note. That is:

With one single exception the values accepted were voluntary. No effort whatever was made to swell the total, only one piece of property in the whole county being assessed.

The enormous increase is the solid natural product of Atlanta's growth.

In fact, with the usual percentage of assessments, common in other counties, the return would have shown a much greater increase.

The increase, by the official figures, is $5,430,978.

The list for yesterday is:

Faulkner $1,424,222 Floyd $8,277,292

Fulton 46,000,207 Talbot 1,425,407

Dougherty 5,430,978

That makes 132 counties heard from, showing an aggregate net increase of $30,702,627.

IN MEMORIAM.

Whereas, it has pleased the Grand Master of the Universe to take from our midst our beloved brother, Calvin Fay; be it

Resolved, That Georgia Lodge No. 96 extend to his family, to the body of Masonry, and to his friends, its profound regret at his departure from us, and for the loss sustained by his beloved order by his death. Unimpeachable in public and private life, no breath of slander ever tarnished his fair name. As husband and father, he was faithful and true; as a Mason, no one in every walk of life represented more fully than he the sublime principles of our order, and in his death he leaves an example to be emulated by us all.

His character was the embodiment of strength and uprightness, and his name will forever shine on the records of this lodge, as an emblem of virtue and morality, and from the Grand Lodge on high to which his general's office after first day's memory of his charitable, blameless, truly Masonic life ever serve as a beacon to all Masons.

Resolved, further, That these resolutions be spread on the minutes of this lodge and published in each of the daily papers of Atlanta, and that a copy be sent to his bereaved family.

H. T. EARNEST, J. E. WILLIAMS, R. N. ROSE, Committee.

Chronic Inflammation of the Bladder

Is promptly cured by the Excelsior Springs, Mo., water.

ALL FITS stopped free by Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. No fits after first day's use. Marvelous cures. Treatise and $2 trial bottle free to fit cases. Send to Dr. Kline, 931 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa.

A RAILWAY MAIL EXCHANGE

Will Soon Be Established in Atlanta by the Railroads.

The Southern Travelers' Guide recently reported that a railway mail exchange would be established in Atlanta at an early date for the prompt delivery of all mail pertaining to railroad service.

An exchange of this kind is being operated very successfully in Chicago and other large cities, and as Atlanta's railroad mail is very heavy, and constantly growing, we believe that it would be an economical move on the part of the railroads to establish such a service.

The modus operandi of handling the business is about as follows:

Each line, a member of the exchange, sends its messenger to the exchange three or four times daily, with any letters or purely railway mail for distribution amongst the members of the exchange, for either city or railway mail.

The same is received, stamped with the date and hour received, and distributed in boxes similar to postal-car boxes, one or more of which are assigned to each member of the exchange, and the mail for the line represented by said messenger, is delivered to him. Thus, the entire time necessarily consumed by the messenger in the exchange room does not exceed two minutes for each visit, making it to each member, a very cheap method of exchanging mail between the railroads.

The greatest care is, from necessity, taken in handling this railway mail matter, so as not to infringe on the United States postal laws.

These exchanges in the larger cities forward to the different passenger depots in the city, any train, mail that may be received up to the last hour by the messengers from the different roads, insuring the train mail going forward with promptness and dispatch.

The work in these exchanges is usually handled by a superintendent and junior assistants.

The Chicago Railway Exchange has fifty-six lines as members, and handles daily from nine to eleven thousand pieces of railway mail.

THE WEATHER.

Forecast for Georgia.

WASHINGTON, August 21.—Indications for tomorrow: Local rains, southerly winds, moderate temperature, except in extreme northern portion, slightly cooler.

SIGNAL SERVICE U. S. A.

ATLANTA, GA., August 21.

All observations taken at the same moment of actual time at each place.

Observation taken at 8 p. m. 7th meridian time.

STATIONS.

Barom. Therm. Wind. Rainfall. Weather.

Meridian 30.04 82.72 W Light 01 Cloudy

Pensacola 30.06 82.76 SW 10 01 Cloudless

Mobile 30.08 82.74 S 8 00 Cloudless

Montgomery 30.04 82.85 SW 8 00 Cloudless

New Orleans 30.06 84.72 NE Light 01 Cloudless

Galveston 30.08 84.72 NE Light 01 Cloudless

Palestine 30.08 86.64 SW 6 00 P. Cloudy

Corpus Christi 30.06 82.74 S Light 01 Cloudless

Brownsville 30.06 82.74 S Light 01 Cloudless

Rio Grande City 30.06 82.74 S Light 01 Cloudless

Port Eads 30.06 82.74 S Light 01 Cloudless

LOCAL OBSERVATIONS.

(Local Time.)

TIME OF OBSERVATION.

7 a. m. 30.15 75.07 NW 8 00 Cloudless

1 p. m. 30.02 82.68 SW 8 00 P. Cloudy

Maximum Thermometer 82

Minimum Thermometer 62

Total Rainfall00

COTTON BELT BULLETIN.

Observation taken at 6 p. m. 7th meridian time.

ATLANTA DISTRICT.

Maximum Temperature.

Minimum Temperature.

Rainfall.

Atlanta 89 71 .00

Kennesaw 89 70 .00

Lawrenceville 88 70 .00

Chattanooga 88 64 .00

Marietta 88 64 .00

Greenville 88 68 .00

Macon 88 72 .00

Newman 88 70 .00

Spartanburg 88 70 .00

Cocoa 88 70 .00

West Point 88 70 .00

Missing: J. W. BYRAM, Observer.

Beckham's Pills act like magic on a weak stomach.

At Sweetwater Park Hotel.

LITHIA SPRINGS, GA., August 20, 1896.—The Sweetwater Park Hotel has been crowded with visitors through the summer months and has a great many guests now. The hotel is one of the most popular and well patronized summer and winter resorts in the south owing to its beautiful grounds and the mineral waters. Among the new arrivals at the hotel are the following: Hon. Ashton Phelps and family, New Orleans, La.; Mr. Phelps is president of the New Orleans Times.

Mr. R. J. New, New Orleans, La.; Mr. J. B. Rountree, Quitman, Ga.; Mrs. W. T. Ashford, Atlanta, Ga.; Miss Ashford, Atlanta, Ga.; F. Hughes, Greenville, Miss.; W. H. Simpson, Rome, Ga.; H. H. Perry, Waynesboro, Ga.; Henry Quigg, Conyers, Ga.; Mrs. W. A. Haygood, Atlanta, Ga.; Miss Clara Quigg, Miss Rosa Quigg, Macon, Ga.; Miss Gertrude Douglas, Madison, Ga.; A. S. Thwaitt and wife, Atlanta, Ga.; Miss Hays, Louisville, Ga.; J. A. Rouse, Columbus, Ga.; E. and L. Haas, Atlanta, Ga.; James A. Greene, W. L. Davidson, Cincinnati, O.; H. R. Jarrett, Miss C. S. Little, Eatonton, Ala.; D. F. Constantine and wife, Anniston, Ala.; Mrs. L. M. Wilson, Calhoun, Ga.; J. H. R. Jenet and family, Winona, Miss.; Miss Alice Turner, LaGrange, Ga.; Mrs. E. A. Haaden, Palmetto, Ga.; J. J. Winder, Columbus, Miss.; J. R. Watts, Mrs. J. K. Kingsberry, Miss L. Kingsberry, Ark. G. E. Elmore, Mrs. Elmore, Marietta, Ga.; J. M. Williams and wife, New Orleans, La.; W. H. Scruggs, Waycross, Ga.; Alfred Austell, Atlanta, Ga.; William Baldwin, Columbus, Miss.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she became a Child, we gave her Castoria.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

A host of intellectual women are using Bradycrine to prevent Headaches. Are you?

YOUR OWN LIFE.

May Be Saved If You Will Think of Yourself at a Moment and Then Act.

Ulceration of the bowels, usually called "itching piles," is a very common affliction, and not causing much pain is usually considered of small importance, and the disease is allowed to develop into a very grave affliction. The symptoms of this trouble are moisture and itching around the anus, pain across the hips (low down), diarrhea, and irregular bowels, pain in lower part of same, indigestion, and a long train of nervous symptoms, differing in nearly every case; and in the female, who are more liable to be affected than the male, many symptoms usually attributed to female disease. This disease is a very fruitful cause of many diseases refusing to yield to the treatment of your physician, and places you on the list of "incurables." The results of neglecting this affliction to continue, to continue, a general impairment of health, frequently so slow as to be scarcely noticeable, derangement of the nervous system, uniting for a number of years, I am able to offer you a cure without the usual pain attending the treatment employed by one who has not the experience in treating these diseases. The mode of treatment I employ for their cure is mild and is not unpleasant in any way, as I use neither knife or caustic applications. I have cured many, and I am willing that they should tell you of my success if you wish it. I can furnish you their names if you prefer it. On my past success I am willing to stand or fall. Can I offer you anything better? If you wish to investigate what I have said, I extend to you an invitation to consult me, (free of cost), and I will prove all I have said to the satisfaction of the most skeptical. For further particulars call or write to:

Dr. W. G. JACKSON,

No. 474, Whitehall St., Atlanta, Ga.

Sun wed fri no. 2

COUNTY POLITICS.

SOME TALKS AND BUMBLES ABOUT THE COMING PRIMARY.

How the Different Offices Are Being Sought, and by Whom—The Primary Will Be Postponed.

Everybody talks politics in Fulton county, now.

The speculation as to the results of the next primary, which will not be held until the middle of November, increases every day.

Much of the work among the office seekers is being done on the quiet, and but little leaks out. But as the days go by, it is becoming more and more evident that some lively races are being booked for the democratic primary whenever it does come off.

The county offices are being sought by several tickets in opposition to the ins, and the chances are good for many more such tickets to be in the field before the day of the primary.

As a matter of fact, the opposition men are anxious to have the nomination postponed to as late a day as possible, so as to give them ample time to fully organize their tickets and get in their political work.

THE PRIZE OFFERED.

Already the political field has many shapers. The ordinary office is not to be awarded this time, the term of Judge Calhoun not having yet expired.

The clerk's office is sought by two tickets, neither of which have yet been announced in full. Mr. Tanner, who now fills the office, will offer for re-election, but has named his deputies yet. There is no telling how the "in" ticket will be shaped, but it is generally believed that all of the present deputies will be on it.

The other ticket for clerk is headed by Judge Strong. He will not abide the primary.

It is believed by many that Mr. Walter Venable will head a ticket for the office, but he says he hasn't considered the matter sufficiently to talk definitely about it yet.

THE SHERIFF'S RACE.

Here will be a race sure enough.

The "ins" will run, headed by Sheriff Thomas, perhaps, though many think that Deputy Lockenshaw will be elected.

They will be opposed by Captain Jim Morrow and his men as soon as they are chosen.

"It is a common rumor," said a prominent politician yesterday, "that Captain Morrow's ticket will be made up of himself, Mr. J. J. Barnes and a young man who is not yet decided upon for a deputy."

If the ticket is gotten up this way and secures the support of the Young Men's Democratic League, it will certainly be a strong one, but as to that, it will take a strong one, indeed, to beat the ins, for they have a good record."

It may be that another ticket for sheriff will be gotten up before many days.

There seems to be no opposition felt to the "in" ticket of the tax collector's office. No ticket has been announced for that race yet except that which at present holds down the affairs of the office.

For the office of tax receiver two tickets have been announced. Mr. John Loyd, the present officer, will be opposed by Mr. John Collier.

Mr. Frank T. Ryan is announced for treasurer.

Endless and varied rumors get out each day about the possible tickets that may yet show up for the county offices, and it may be confidently expected that some lively times are ahead.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is in favor with all classes because it combines economy and strength in one bottle.

I had chills and fever; less than one bottle of Smith's Tonic Syrup perfectly cured me.—C. D. Clarke, Frankford, Mo.

DON'T GO TO BED till you buy Bough on Dirt Soap.

Hammocks and Croquet Sets

at your own price at W. B. Glover & Co.'s, 104 Whitehall street.

The Ferro-Manganese Water.

"For disordered menstruation, anemia and sterility, it may properly be termed a specific."—From Dr. W. F. Mason's Report on this Famous Water of Excelsior Springs, Mo., wed fri sun 3.

Bowden Lithia water has 4 1/2 grains Lithia to every gallon.

Hammocks! Hammocks!

I am overstocked on Hammocks, and will sell at reduced prices to close out. John M. Miller, 31 Marietta st.

Low Rates.

Via the Queen and Crescent route, to all points in Arkansas, Texas, Mexico and California.

Parties desiring information about the west can obtain books, maps and schedules by writing to or calling on S. C. RAY, Office 17 Kimball house, S. E. P. A.

8-21-dit

Special Sale.

Negligee shirts, summer underwear and straw hats. A. O. M. Gay & Son, 18 Whitehall st.

All bowel complaints yield readily to Lamm's Diarrhoea Mixture.

The largest and cheapest stock ever brought to Atlanta at W. B. Glover & Co.'s, 104 Whitehall street.

HYMENEAL.

BROWN-MISSE—Married at the residence of the bride's father, in Atlanta, Ga., at 5 o'clock p. m., August 21, 1896, by Rev. E. H. Ross, Rev. O. E. Brown and Miss Anna J. Muse, Mr. and Mrs. Brown took the first train for the west. They will spend a few days with Mr. Brown's friends in Missouri, and expect to sail on the 4th instant for their mission field in China.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

DOWD.—The funeral of Mr. Thomas Dowd will take place today at 3 o'clock p. m., from his late residence, 79 McAfee street; and the friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dowd and Mr. and Mrs. John M. Miller are invited to attend the services. Burial at Westview.

EXCURSION TO SAVANNAH.

Saturday evening, August 23d and 30th, the Central Railroad of Georgia will sell round trip tickets to Savannah for Only $4.50.

For further information and sleeping car reservations, call on S. F. WEBB, Jr., Atlanta, Ga., H. S. MCCLURE, S. F. WEBB, Jr., Atlanta, Ga., Pass. Agt., 11 Kimball House, Atlanta, Ga., E. T. CHARLTON, G. P. A., Savannah, Ga.

"LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN."

Only $3 to Chattanooga and return, via Western and Atlantic R. R. Tickets on sale every Saturday for trains leaving at 1:35 p. m., 6:18 p. m. and 11:15 p. m.; also for Sunday morning train. Tickets good for return passage on any train leaving Chattanooga not later than 8:20 a. m. Monday.

STILSON, JEWELER.

55 WHITEHALL ST. Reliable Goods. Fair Dealing. Bottom Prices.

DR. BOWES & CO

Southern Medical Dispensary.

21-2 MARIETTA ST., ATLANTA, GA. (Over Jacobs Pharmacy)

Chronic, Nervous, Blood and Skin Diseases.

NERVOUS debility, seminal losses, impotency, loss of memory, effect of bad habits, confusion of ideas, and all other nervous diseases, and all of its terrible results, totally eradicated. Ulcers, blotches, sores or ulcerated throat and mouth, scrofula, erysipelas permanently cured when others have failed. Kidney and bladder troubles, frequent and burning urine, gonorrhea, gleet, urinary sediments, cystitis, etc., quickly cured.

URETHRAL STRICTURE—permanently cured without any cutting or caustics, or dilation or interruption of business or occupation.

CURES GUARANTEED.

A SURE CURE to young and middle-aged men who have foolishly wasted their energies.

Dr. Bowes is a graduate of the great University of Michigan, of twenty years' experience, and is strictly reliable. Send six cents in stamps for "Perfect Question List" and book on diseases of men. Enclose stamps for reply to your letter.

Call on or address DR. BOWES & CO., 21-2 Marietta St., Atlanta, Ga.

References: Constitution, Jacobs Pharmacy Co. 7-11-12-13

FETZER'S.

We still have a choice line of suits and odd pants. They go at 25 per cent discount. In addition to this we offer all summer underwear at the above liberal discount.

Your choice of straw hats at $1.

This includes $2, $2.50, $3.50 and $4 goods.

Any tie or scarf at 50c.

Fetzer's Clothing Store,

12 Whitehall Street.

To Mothers: We call your special attention to our $1.50 and $2.50 suits for boys. Call and examine them.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES.

SCHOOL BOOKS.

Old and New.

CALL AND SEE

W. B. GLOVER,

The Young Book Store Man,

104 Whitehall Street,

And see what he will do for you.

He will exchange new books for old ones and do more for you than any one else will.

104 Whitehall Street.

Bankers looking for security are invited to inspect the very strong burglar protection now being erected for Maddox, Rucker & Co. and the Southern Banking and Trust Company by Herring & Co. Wiles is always happy when speaking in the Herring language.

HORSE AND CATTLE STOCKS,

Ranch and Wheat Lands,

IN NORTH TEXAS. About 225 head well graded horse stock in pasture, including five stallions, many worth over $100 each, to close out at $25 per head. Also about 250 head well graded cattle. Ranches of 3,100, 3,975, 2,000 and 5,000 acres; healthy, well grassed and watered. Many 250-acre tracts of wheat lands for sale. E. S. Graham, Graham, Texas.

EXTRA PANTS

This is about the time you want an extra pair of pants "to bridge over" until fall. I still have a good line and at end-of-season prices.

Broken lots of suits going at closing prices.

GEORGE MUSE,

CLOTHIER,

38 Whitehall St.

Jas. A. Anderson & Co.

